Manufacturing & Workforce Development Conference sponsored by BCI coming to Oak Forest

SOUTH HOLLAND, IL – The Business & Career Institute (BCI) of South Suburban College is holding a one-day Manufacturing & Workforce Development Conference on Wednesday, November 18, 2009, at the University & College Center in Oak Forest.

This special conference will provide attendees with the latest information on generating sales, ensuring quality and compliance, proper administration of human resource functions, going "green" in the workplace, and much more.

BCI recognizes the challenges and struggles that regional manufacturers are facing, and are committed to partnering with them for continued success.

The Manufacturing & Workforce Development Conference will take place from 7:45 a.m. – 2:30 p.m. The cost of $25 per person includes a continental breakfast, and lunch will be provided by the manufacturers. ACT is also a conference sponsor.

To register by phone, or for additional information, please call 708-596-2000 x2522 or email bci@ssc.edu. The University & College Center is located at 16333 S. Kilbourn, Oak Forest, IL.
